Willow Springs, NC – 2 February 2007 – The Apex Chamber of Commerce has named R.T. Crowley, Convey Ink Senior Vice-President, as one member of its twelve member Ambassadors Club. In this role, he will act as a liaison between the Chamber management and members to ensure Chamber services are being used to the best advantage. Mr. Crowley will also serve on the Chamber Education Committee, a group providing support and assistance to Apex area schools.

“I see this appointment as an honor,” said Bob Crowley, Senior Vice-President of Convey Ink. “The Apex Chamber of Commerce does some wonderful work within the community in many ways few people see or realize. Being a part of that is very important.”

Crowley is one of the more active people on the Apex scene today. Along with Chamber membership and his new role in the Ambassadors Club, he serves as Vice-President of the Apex Arts Council, and is a member of the Apex Downtown Business Association (ADBA) and the Apex Historical Society. We at Convey Ink are proud to support him in his activities for the improvement and growth of the community.
